“5. Remuneration for a member of the Supervisory Board delegated temporarily to perform the duties of a member of the Management Board shall be determined by the Supervisory Board in the amount which shall not be higher than the highest remuneration determined for the other members of the Management Board. The member of the Supervisory Board delegated temporarily to perform the duties of a member of the Management Board is not entitled to his/her remuneration for performing the duties of a member of the Supervisory Board for the period of such posting.

6. The Company shall reimburse costs incurred by members of the Supervisory Board in the fulfilment of the function entrusted to them, in particular costs of travel to meetings of the Supervisory Board, costs of board and accommodation, costs of independent performance of certain supervisory activities by the members of the Supervisory Board, as well as costs of the exercise of individual supervision.”

11. § 43 clause 7 shall read as follows:

“7. The Management Board shall be entitled to adopt a resolution on the advance payment of expected dividend to shareholders at the end of a financial year if the Company is in possession of funds for such advance payment. Such advance payment of dividend shall require consent of the Supervisory Board. Such advance payment of expected dividend shall be possible provided that the Company has achieved profit and such profit is recognised in the approved financial statements of the Company for the previous financial year. Such advance payment of dividend may constitute not more than a half of profit achieved from the end of the previous financial year, recognized in the financial statements and audited by a statutory auditor, plus capital reserves created from profit which remain at the disposal of the Management Board for the purpose of such advance payment, less remaining losses and treasury shares.”

12. § 45 clause 6 shall read as follows:

“6. Whenever these Statutes refer to the value of liabilities or agreements, the net value should be taken into account.”

13. In § 45, clauses 7 - 9 are added, reading as follows:

“7. Whenever these Statutes refer to the conclusion of the agreement, the following should be adopted to determine its value:

1) in the case of an agreement concluded for a definite period - the total value of the provisions under such agreement for its entire term,

2) in the case of an agreement concluded for an indefinite period - the total value of the provisions under the agreement for a period of five years.

If it is impossible to determine the value of provisions under the agreement, it is necessary to estimate the value of the subject of the agreement.

8. Whenever these Statutes refer to the value, it must be estimated, unless it can be determined based on the Statutes or applicable provisions of law.

9. Whenever these Statutes refer to the Energy Law, it shall mean the Energy Law of 10 April 1997 (Journal of Laws of 2012, item 1059, as amended).

10. Whenever these Statutes refer to the Geological and Mining Law, it shall mean the Geological and Mining Law of 9 June 2011 (Journal of Laws, no. 163, item 981, as amended).”
